THE COVER: High-flying Thetas from Gamma Zeta chapter at Connecticut used the old World War II plane shown on the cover as the "backdrop" for their sorority yearbook picture. Entering into the spirit of the affair, many Thetas donned flying garb (?) and appeared willing to ride the wings stunt-like rather than settling safely for a ride in the cockpit, if any. Suggests a Gamma Zeta alumna, "Convention or Bust" just might be the right caption for the picture. What better way to float on out to Coronado in June than this? In our Centennial Year anything is possible; don't you believe it?

YOUR EDITOR HAS A NOTION that by this time all of you are oriented to Centennial and the changes it has made in 1969 and 1970. Thus, following the "mini-issue" of Summer 1969 when chapter letters were omitted, Summer 1970 brings a second "mini-issue," also without chapter letters and much usual copy. Held-over copy will be used as soon as possible during the coming year—and thank you for waiting!

THOSE WERE THE DAYS

Revolt on campus? Incredible! Not in the 1870's! But both the men students and the faculty at the University of Vermont revolted at the idea of Lida Mason and Ellen Hamilton coming into Phi Beta Kappa, even though theirs were the highest grades in the senior class. Coming to their rescue was beloved Prof. Perkins, small in body (barely 5-feet tall) but big in heart, who initiated the two girls without asking anyone, then presented them as "fellow" Phi Beta Kappas!—A personal memory of BEATRICE MOORE BERGMAN, Lambda, Vermont.

Even many years later, in 1909, boys vs. girls was still an issue. When Alpha Lambda at Washington-Seattle, then only a year old, made plans to lease a house, horrified shouts went up. The house was next to the SAE house! University regulations would not allow men and women to live in adjacent buildings! What a crisis! It was solved by installing one-way glass in both houses to prevent two-way communication. Dull, but satisfactory.—Reminiscence of JOSEPHINE MEISSNER QUIGLEY, Delta, Illinois.

Theta founder Bettie Locke Hamilton as a neighbor? What a thrill! Children liked her because she treated them as adults, often quoting poetry or something from the classics. She was always interested in "intellectual growth." She also painted.—Personal recollection of EDNA BENICE LORING, Alpha, DePauw, who lived near Bettie in Greencastle as a girl.

Bored by commencement? Thinking of having your diploma sent by mail? Be glad you did not graduate in 1872. 1872 graduates could hardly make speeches by mail! The three girls in the class of 1872 at DePauw declaimed at graduation on "Genius Its Own Reward," "Judith" and "The Expression of Suppressed Opinion," the latter speech being made by Ella J. Jones, Theta's second initiate after the founders. The program took all day with 38 interruptions for music. There was 26 speeches plus a salutatory, a master's oration and a valedictory. Oh, yes, and before the valedictory, they did award degrees—From a commencement program in possession of EMMA BROWDER WOODFIELD, Alpha, DePauw, daughter of Ella.

Delta, Illinois, 1897

First Lady Of the Theater

If an award were given to the First Lady of the Canadian Theater, it certainly would go to Dora Mavor Moore, Sigma, Toronto. Her career spans over 50 years as actress, producer, director and teacher. A Theta membership of 64 years parallels this.

It was while an undergraduate at the University of Toronto that Mrs. Moore became a member of Sigma chapter and also directed her first production, Maeterlink's The Bluebird. After studying dramatic arts in England and appearing professionally on Broadway, in 1938 she formed the Village Players in Toronto, an amateur group which toured 52 schools giving productions of Shakespeare. It was, however, with the establishment of the professional New Play Society in 1946, at a time when professional theater in Canada was non-existent, that she contributed most to Canadian theater.

As founder and director of the government incorporated, educational, non-profit Society, Mrs. Moore has given encouragement to over a thousand actors who received their first professional experience with this group and to some 55 Canadian playwrights whose original plays have been staged by the Society. At the height of her work, directing plays and teaching in the Society's dramatic school, Mrs. Moore put in 18-hour days. Though now the Society is inactive, her own effort goes on collating material on the theater in Canada.

In 1967 she was given a government Centennial Award, a Canadian Drama Award, a Toronto B'nai B'rith Women's Council Award and in 1969, an honorary degree from Western College for Women (U.S.). Thetas at the 1930 Toronto Convention still remember the two plays she directed.—SHEILA WHEATON PARK.

Honored Teacher

Pride in her profession, loyalty to her institution and associates and her sense of grace and style have distinguished Grace L. Beede, Alpha Rho, South Dakota, in the field of higher education. Because of these notable qualities she was honored last spring by the students, faculty and alumni of the University of South Dakota, Vermillion, for 40 years of service and dedication. In addition, in 1967 the University dedicated Beede Hall, a million dollar women's housing unit.

Graduating from South Dakota in 1926, Dr. Beede returned two years later as an instructor in classics, became head of the USD Classics Department in 1947, a position she still holds. She has had graduate study at Smith College, received her Ph.D. at the University of Chicago in 1936. She was the first initiate into Phi Beta Kappa at USD, has been editor of national Phi Beta Kappa publications.

She is on the national committee on preparation of standards of Latin teachers; is national trustee of Eta Sigma Phi, classics honorary; has received numerous honors in the field of the classics. Locally in Vermillion she has been active in Eastern Star, Community Artist series, the Baptist church and as scholarship chairman on the Advisory Board of Alpha Rho collegiate chapter of Theta.

Always close to her students, she says she can still talk to them, learn from them and is not bothered by the generation gap. A former student, now a Westinghouse executive, feels that the "discipline of the classics" under Dr. Beede has been invaluable for all who studied under her.—CLARICIE VISSER COLLINS.

The Harlows of Washington

Meet Betty Larimore Harlow. She's a Theta from Alpha Omicron, Oklahoma, and is the first president of the newly installed Theta Alumnæ Chapter of Northern Virginia. But that's not her only claim to fame. As a Republican in the inner, inner circle she is wife of Bryce Harlow, a veteran of the Eisenhower administration, and more recently the first appointee of Nixon when he took office as U.S. president. Harlow started his service as Nixon's assistant, but since June 1969 has had cabinet rank as a counselor to the President on a broad spectrum of national affairs. He also still continues to guide the President on congressional relations policy.

Interviewed in their North Arlington, Virginia, home shortly after her husband joined the Nixon staff, Betty Harlow accepted with equanimity the new duties for the family, though she did comment that "We didn't want to do it (the Nixon job). It's a very hard job. We knew others could do it, but we didn't know anyone as close to the President who could do it."

What sort of a person is Betty Harlow? Freckled, dark-haired and slim, she hasn't had a maid in a year . . . Since she never can tell "who's going to be home when" she uses the "freezer method" of cooking . . . She admits being chief swimming pool keeper and yard man.

She leads a diverse social life. She bowls with a group of friends who "aren't necessarily Republicans. I don't even know what some of their husbands do." She plays bridge, but it's always at night "when my husband has something else to do." She hooks rugs and does other kinds of needlework. "I like to do things I can carry with me. When he was in the White House before I needed something to do while I waited for him in the car."

The Harlows are natives of Oklahoma City and grew up six blocks apart, but did not meet until they both attended the University of Oklahoma. They have three children, a married son and a married daughter and Peggy, Gamma Kappa, George Washington, a charter member of the Northern Virginia Alumnæ.—Adapted from an article in The Evening Star, Washington, D.C.

Liz Morgan—Transplanted "Okie"

One of those who headed east to Washington, D.C., in January 1969 when Nixon was inaugurated president of the U.S. was Henry Bellmon, newly elected senator from Oklahoma. Accompanying him were his staff, many of whom have been with the senator since campaign days in 1962 when he ran for Oklahoma governor. One of these was Elizabeth Morgan, Alpha Omicron, Oklahoma.

"Liz," as she is called, is no new fixture to Oklahoma politics. In 1963, if you happened into Governor Bellmon's office at the capitol, the first person that crossed your line of vision was the very attractive brunette sitting behind the receptionist's desk—that was Liz.

In 1967 as Oklahoma changed governors, Liz changed bosses but was still in the governor's office. Then when Bellmon's senate race got underway, she was one of the first to join his campaign team. This was followed by a hectic fall—long and hard politics-wise, as any veteran campaigner knows. "The pressure is there as soon as the candidate decides to run," remarks Liz.

Following the election, though the pace was slower, there were still all those numerous notes and letters to get out thanking loyal Bellmon supporters and the plans to be made for organizing the work for the term ahead. And then, the move to Washington into the new job on Bellmon's staff involving constituent services, "an opportunity I couldn't pass up," says Liz.

Safely ensconced in an apartment in Washington, Liz has found herself among a great number of "Okies," a tradition from the Johnson administration which has changed very little with Nixon. (Otherwise, how would we happen to have two "Okie" stories on the same page?—EDITOR.) But Liz still does not know whether Washington life comes up to that in Oklahoma. She says with some nostalgia, "I don't know whether I want to leave Oklahoma permanently," though she adds, "I intend to stay in Washington as long as I like it." One reason: She finds the people friendly, the atmosphere exhilarating!—Adapted from an article in The Sunday Oklahoman.

Mother Of the Year

A broad spectrum of interests, a soft-spoken manner, a good sense of humor and the paramount place of parenthood—and grandparenthood—in her life. These are some of the “colors and lines” we would use in drawing a vignette of South Dakota’s Mother Of the Year 1969, Edna Lass Mundt, Alpha Rho, South Dakota.

A graduate in mathematics from the University of South Dakota, Mrs. Mundt has also taught school. She and her husband, Circuit Judge Harry E. Mundt, live in Mobridge, S. D.

As the mother of six (she includes her daughters-in-law and son-in-law as her children), and the grandmother of six, she modestly minimizes her role as mother: “I feel fortunate the children are doing well.” The children, all grown, are James, Robert and Mary Jane (the latter also a Theta from Alpha Rho chapter, and now Mrs. Gary Oltmans).

Interests concerning government, patriotism and citizenship have occupied a great deal of Mrs. Mundt’s time. One of the most rewarding for her is Girls State in which she has been active since 1949. She has also worked with the American Legion Auxiliary since the 1920’s, is involved with the Mobridge Hospital Auxiliary, was state officer, Catholic Daughters.

She and Judge Mundt enjoy: taking guests to some of the beautiful spots around Mobridge for steak fries; the lovely roses the judge raises and she picks; duplicate bridge; an occasional golf or bowling game; and traveling. She belongs to Theta’s Aberdeen Alumnae Club.—Adapted from Aberdeen (S. D.) American-News.

State Board Member

Arline Brush Hunt, Lambda, Vermont, has just rounded out her first year (by appointment) on the Vermont Board of Education. The story of her activities in the twenty-one years since her graduation from college shows her completely qualified for this important job.

A former junior high school teacher, since 1956 she has lived in Island Pond, Vermont, where her husband, Paul H. Hunt, is port director of U.S. Customs. For many years she has been a news correspondent for the Burlington Free Press and two other state papers, has done free lance writing and understands publicity and public relations.

In public school work she has been a school director in Island Pond for 8 years, received the Vermont Education Association layman’s award in 1966, has been president of the Tri County School Directors and board member and legislative chairman of the Vermont State School Directors for the last two years.

In politics, she has served on the Republican State Committee for Essex County and was chosen as alternate to the Republican National Convention in Miami, 1968.

By governor’s appointment she served three years on the Board of Historic Sites. She has also displayed other abilities as a church woman and club woman and has received writer’s awards from the Vermont Federation of Women’s Clubs. In 1964 she was Mrs. Vermont and participated in the Mrs. America Pageant.

The mother of three young boys, she has brought enthusiasm and willingness to work to the Board of Education position.

Another Washington-ian

Among the Thetas whose husbands are serving the government in Washington, D.C., is Mary Jane Benedict Dellenbeck, Omicron, Southern California. Mary Jane's husband, John, was elected to the House of Representatives from Oregon's 4th District in 1966. Since that time she has been involved in various activities connected with his service in Congress.

She was elected the first president of the 90th Congress Club, a group consisting of the wives of members of Congress in Washington for the first time. More recently Mary Jane has been responsible for the orientation program for "freshmen" wives of the 91st Congress. In this capacity she arranged programs featuring speakers from various departments of the government.

Mary Jane finds public life a natural outlet for her warm and friendly personality and has been a great help to her husband. One of their pleasanter duties is entertaining 12 high school students, four at a time, from their district in Oregon for three weeks each spring in a scholarship program they originated to give students an opportunity to visit Washington. The Dellenbecks give them a fast, exciting week, introducing them to Washington, historical seat of government, and pointing out aspects so different from their Oregon home.

In addition to Congressional responsibilities, she has undertaken with such zest, Mary Jane cares for their home and three teen-age children, two boys and a girl.

The Senator's Wife

"I have never been happier in my life," said Loraine Guyer Percy, Beta Xi, California-L.A. Her looks match her words.

Mrs. Percy talked recently about her life in Washington, her first grandchild, and her husband, Charles H. Percy, Republican from Illinois, the state's senior senator.

"I like politics," mused Mrs. Percy. "I like the way it connects with everything else. But the hardest part is not having a private life, of being in the public eye."

Another hard part, she has learned, is the criticism. "If criticism is constructive, it doesn't bother me. But if it is a personal dig, it does. I think this is true of all women."

A national magazine sought to do a feature on the Percy home. The request was denied. "We try to keep life as private as possible, not only because of Valerie, but because of ourselves," she continued. "You need an oasis."

Valerie Percy was slain September 18, 1966 in a still unsolved murder in the Percy's Kenilworth, Illinois, home, which they since have sold. Her twin sister, Sharon, is now the wife of John D. Rockefeller IV, a Democrat and secretary of the state of West Virginia.

In the home into which they moved a year and a half ago, the Percys have an elegant oasis. Perched on a small rise and boasting the traditional Georgetown, Virginia, red brick exterior, its interior, so vibrant with color, is an incredible, delightful surprise.

The Rockefellers, along with their baby son, Jamie, gathered here recently along with the other Percy children for the senator's 50th birthday. There was Roger, a senior at Stanford, Gail, who is out of town at school and Mark, who is at home. The mother of Sharon and Roger died, leaving Percy a widower. Loraine Guyer was 21 when they were married in 1950.

"I've never been happier in my life," Mrs. Percy repeated. "Oh, I can be happy anywhere I happen to be depending upon whether my husband is. But here I see so many friends. People come from all over." For instance, the Percys recently had as house guests the 16-year-old daughter of the secretary to Maurice Chevalier and a friend. In addition, the Percys themselves travel a good bit, most recently took a ranging vacation to Scandinavia, Japan and India. In the latter place there was dinner at the home of Indira Ghandi, prime minister, with her two sons present.

In the meantime, Mrs. Percy plans soon to resume tutoring at the public school near the Percy home.—Adapted from an article in the Chicago Tribune.

Books By Theta Authors

Clotheslines U.S.A. by Helen Mather, Doubleday & Company, 1969. $3.95.

"Clotheslines are signal flags, a story of life written on the wind." With this poetic bit, Helen Mather gives us an unusual, imaginative and insightful view of America. Her photos of clotheslines are eloquent in themselves, but her brief comments make this little book a true work of art. "On the scattered, unself-conscious clotheslines of America" she was able to see love of craft, religion, politics, census figures, economics, sculpture, drama, poetry and sex. Soon the reader is able to see these things, too, in spite of a somewhat skeptical approach in the beginning, for Mrs. Mather has a discerning eye and a way with words that never misses. Her one word captions are particularly clever; she can title a clothesline impatience or companionship or hope and we marvel at her insight. This is a delightful little book that must be seen to be appreciated. Thanks to being partially underwritten by Lever Brothers, however, its cost is far below what one would expect from so many beautiful color plates, and thus easily available to all. It could be used on many occasions as that small gift.

The Author—Helen Engelking Mather, Alpha Theta, Texas, now lives in Stamford, Conn. She took over 1,000 color slides of clotheslines on a four-month trip across the country. She is obviously a very observant and perceptive traveler!—MIRIAM BAUER PEIRCE.

Flower Arranging by Gladys Taber. Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1969. $2.95.

Gladys Taber's Stillmeadow Album. J. B. Lippincott Company, 1969. $6.95.

♦ A good "how-to" book for young people must be clear, simple and stimulating to the imagination. Gladys Taber is just the person to conceive of and produce such a book on her hobby of flower arranging.

The book begins with the ingredients: lilies-of-the-valley, Queen Anne's lace, tulips, cattails—all the rich variety of plant life from which one may choose. Next, Mrs. Taber lists the tools needed to transform the raw materials and suggests all sorts of easy-to-find containers to hold them. Finally, she details the construction of three basic arrangements and tells how to adjust their proportions to the sizes of their containers, concluding the book with instructions for several special and unusual arrangements—for example, a terrarium and a corsage.

Gladys Taber's style is appropriately complemented by the delicate pen and ink drawings of Grambs Miller, which not only enhance the appearance of the book but also add to its usefulness through their graphic clarity. Flower Arranging is an appealing volume.

♦ And to the delight of those with whom she has shared Stillmeadow, Gladys Taber gives us Stillmeadow

Album, a collection of 62 photographs by Jacques Chepard of Mrs. Taber's ancient, comfortable home and its inhabitants—from grandchildren to cockers. Opposite each photograph is a description by Gladys Taber, transmitting the scene through the eyes of a keen and loving observer and suffusing the book with the intimacy of personal reminiscence.

The Author—Born in Colorado Springs, Colo., Gladys Bagg Taber earned an undergraduate degree at Wellesley and a master's at Lawrence, where she was an Alpha Psi Theta. In the past 30 years she has written some 40 books and numerous magazine articles. Sage and sensitive, Gladys Taber has made Stillmeadow, her home in Southbury, Conn., a warm haven for thousands of devoted readers.—LUCY HUTCHISON VOSMEK.

Down Under Also by Lani Kline and Joanna Riley McLaughlin. Carlton Press, 1969. $3.50.

In Down Under Also the co-authors combine writing talent and photographic ability to produce a very informative, readable traveler's guide to New Zealand. More than a book of personal experiences, it is a travelogue of New Zealand's scenic wonders—a "must" for tourists and a critical survey of the nation's economy as seen by the eye of the consumer.

The book's graphic observations are broad in scope. Initially we visualize the early inhabitants, the Maoris, and follow their development to the present. Next is a geographic tour of the country from Auckland to the Fruit Bowl to Wellington and on to South Island. In this we share vivid observations of the beauty of this country of differing climates. But while this tour will make a reader anxious to gain a more intimate knowledge of these British-like isles, the shrewd description of its economy and immigration requirements, given later in the book, will surely cause one to hesitate before moving "down under" permanently.

Most geographic narratives are anything but amusing and dynamic in character. How refreshing to find one that, if made available to both the young and the mature reader, would stimulate an interest in the geography of our world!

The Authors—When Lani Kline, known to many Thetas as Delta, Illinois, 1944 initiate Louann King Kline, and her family tired of the fast pace of California living they decided to relocate in New Zealand. The meager information available left many questions unanswered. Libraries, book stores, even visits with the consulate brought insufficient information. However, being of a daring nature, they moved despite their inadequate knowledge. Two years later they returned.

When deluged with mail in search of comprehensive information about New Zealand, Lani felt compelled to compose a compendium to aid those curious travelers, potential immigrants and nostalgic former Kiwis. She asked Tri Delta member Joanna McLaughlin to share in the endeavor and together they interspersed personal experiences with documented facts to produce this valuable source of information about the land of the Kiwi.—WENDY WILKERSON MORRIS.

Sudden and Awful by Janet Gould Greene. The Stephen Greene Press, Brattleboro, Vt., 1969.

Janet Greene has supported the "Society for the Revival of the Descriptive Epitaph" which was organized in order to encourage the use of the tombstone as a record of personal history. From the samples she has collected in her book we would all hope for the success of the society. She has recorded here epitaphs from gravestones all over the country, roughly covering a period from 1750 to 1900. They reflect America's way of life during this period with dignity and accuracy, and although often amusing to us today, she emphasizes that the purpose of her collection is not simply for humor. She finds a sense of continuity and identification with the past that convey the universality of the unexpected.

Her book is divided into five sections: Out of the Blue; On the Job; By Another Hand; In Transit; and, In the Name of Justice. Samples from her book include the touching tribute to a couple lost in a boat fire: "They were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided." And the more lively (which she found in several variations in old burying grounds): "Here I lie and / No wonder I'm dead. / I fell from a tree / Down on my head."

The Author—Janet Gould Greene is a Theta from Beta Delta, Arizona, who, after working on the West Coast as a newspaperwoman and in Intelligence during World War II, transferred her loyalties to New England and is now living in Vermont. She has previously published another collection of these interesting bits of Americana, called Over Their Dead Bodies, and has started on a third.—MIRIAM BAUER PEIRCE.

Ames, Mears and Allied Lines of Accomack County, Virginia by Lucy Ames Edwards. Privately Printed.

Being somewhat of a genealogy buff myself I have the utmost respect for anyone who will put together a 378-page hardcover book supplemented by a 4-page bibliography of sources and a 10-page comprehensive index on her family lines. The author, in collaboration with her sister, Nannie Ames Mears, has lovingly traced the American ancestors of her parents, Samuel William Ames and Sarah Anne Edmunds Mears, a study which she acknowledges "was begun in spirit by Anne Mears Ames in the early years of this century." Far from being a study solely of the family trees of those called Ames and Mears, the book covers 65 other family names whose members in one way or another are intertwined with the Ames and Mears lines. The book is lavishly illustrated (or so we feel, knowing full well how hard it is to secure old photographs) with some 35 pictures plus a well documented map of the Eastern Shore of Virginia, the ancestral home.

The Authors—Lucy Ames Edwards and her sister Nannie Ames Mears, her collaborator on this book, are both Thetas from Beta Beta, Randolph-Macon.

Mrs. Edwards' study was sponsored by the Eastern Shore of Virginia Historical Society.—MMKG.

High Altitude Cookbook by Beverly Nemiro and Donna Hamilton. Random House, 1969. $6.95.

Beverly Nemiro and Donna Hamilton's newest culinary venture should be welcomed in the high-altitude homemaker's kitchen. This comprehensive collection is designed for cooking perfection. It offers basic, gourmet and foreign recipes ranging from the preparation of beverages, appetizers, meats and vegetables to the baking of perfect breads and desserts. To insure success the authors have included conversion charts. They indicate the ingredients, temperature and timing adjustments necessary to adapt any recipe for high-altitude use.

The Authors—Beverly Anderson Nemiro, Beta Iota, Colorado, is a woman of wide talents. Following graduation she served as fashion director of the Denver Dry Goods Department Store and of the Denver Market Week Association. Her informative articles on cooking and fashions have appeared in many national magazines. Previously she co-authored other culinary editions with Donna Miller Hamilton.

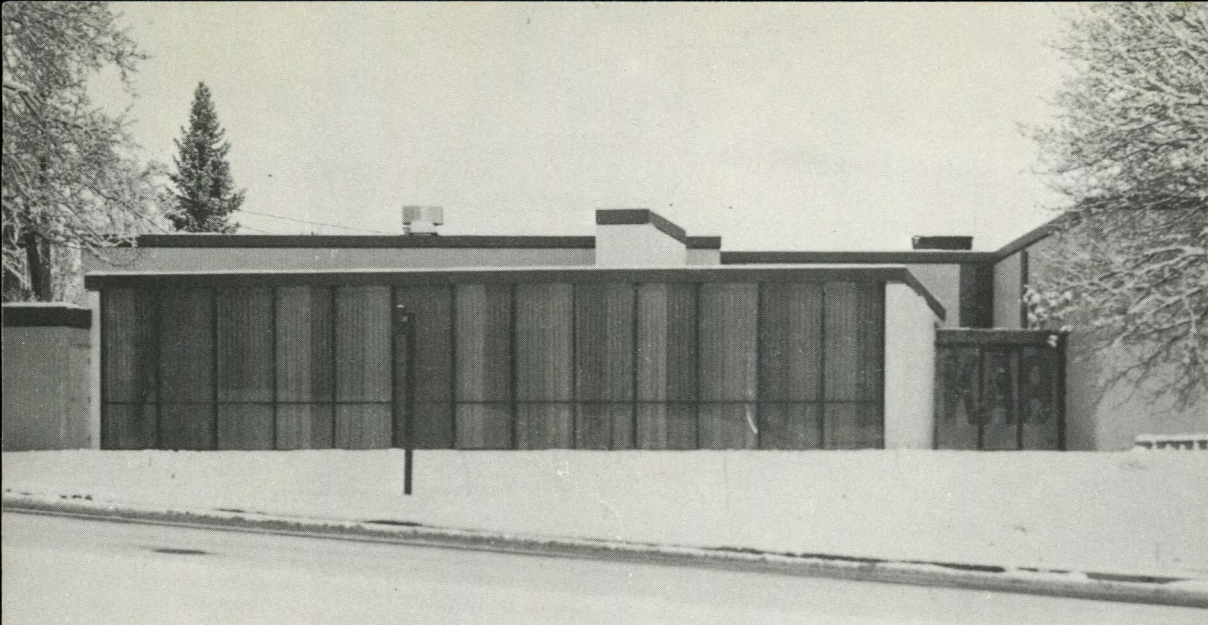

Pert Poems For Plump People by Rebecca Welty Dunn. Privately Printed.

Pert poems for plump people penned on pale pink paper are perfectly precious, whether you are plump or not! Rebecca Dunn has written 75 clever verses, ranging from the terse "That ancient proverb's / Not fishy . . . / As a gal eateth / So is she!" to the more philosophical "Why do I wear such fancy hats? / Since I've acquired this middle-age spread / The only place left for me to be cute. . . . / Is up on top of my head!"

Mrs. Dunn, so she explains, writes from her own experiences, and since, when one is dieting it's hard to sleep, she finds plenty of time to write down her agonies. We are glad that she did, since these little poems should help any of us smile through the miseries of a diet. The illustrations are also very amusing.

The Author—Rebecca Welty Dunn, Alpha Upsilon, Washburn, now of Topeka, has had many of her poems and articles published nationally. Her first love, however, is music, and she has written many songs and operettas. She also operates a successful business as a "song doctor" helping clients revise words and music to make their songs more saleable.—MIRIAM BAUER PEIRCE.

A Theta husband has a new book. Dr. Harold Blake Walker, pastor emeritus of the First Presbyterian Church of Evanston, Illinois, and husband of Mary Alice Corder, Alpha Mu, Missouri, is author of the recently issued Inspirational Thoughts For Every Day. The messages are keyed to the days and weeks so that each day can be a step toward spiritual maturity and a more meaningful existence.

K A Θ | HOUSING

Beta Theta — Idaho

The huge gold KAΘ painted on the wall of the foyer in six-foot high letters as a permanent part of the interior decor greeted hundreds of alumnae and friends on the weekend of April 12, 1970 when Beta Theta's new chapter house was dedicated. The April celebration also marked Beta Theta's 50th anniversary and saluted Kappa Alpha Theta on her Centennial.

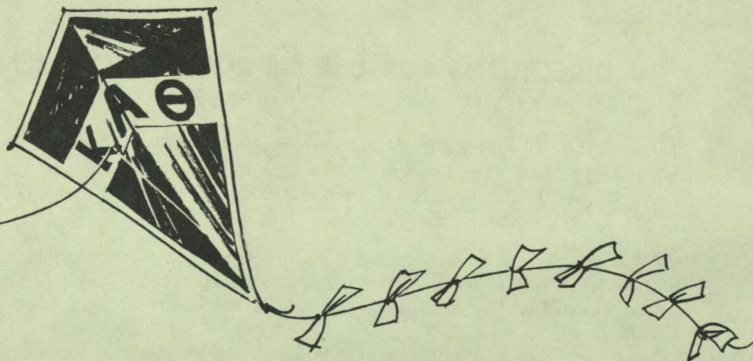

After many years of planning the Thetas obtained from the University of Idaho a lot adjoining the former house and sold the original house to a fraternity. Because of 1969's severe sub-zero weather, workmen could not begin construction of the new house until April. When work was finally begun the workmen were spurred along by Thetas bringing them leftover breakfast doughnuts or fresh cookies at coffee time.

When Theta members left last June, hopes for the fall completion date were dim. But when they returned to school in September they found their home nearly enough finished that they were able to "camp" in the new house. Rush proceeded as scheduled although one pledge did admit later that "I just thought those workmen walking around were part of the program."

Thetas now share the four corners of the same block with Kappa Sigma, Delta Chi and Delta Sigma Phi fraternities. The $400,000 house, built for 60 girls, features two inner courtyards for entertaining and sunbathing, a sunken living room, a large sunlit dining room and a modern kitchen complete with breakfast bar. Both floors have their own lounge and laundry facilities. Most study rooms are planned for four, and since the girls at Idaho prefer sleeping in dormitories, four sleeping porches were provided.—JOANN CRITES THOMPSON.

The Rush Directory lists Rush Recommendation Boards by state. It also contains a list of college chapter rush chairmen and rush advisers, names and addresses of State and Province Chairmen and Alumnae District Presidents. As available, lists of Authorized Rush Representatives will be sent to college rush chairmen and to Rush Recommendation Boards, if requested.

ALUMNAE—Send your recommendations on authorized white rush blank or the printed form on page 9 with attached letter to the Rush Recommendation Board serving the area in which your prospective rushee lives. If there is no Rush Recommendation Board in that area, send the completed rush blank to the college chapter rush chairman.

Voluntary recommendations made by you as soon as possible are the most valuable recommendations.

COLLEGE CHAPTERS—Green sheets from Rush Boards must be accompanied by a completed white rush blank. Recommendations from Authorized Rush Representatives will be on white rush blanks with pink slip attached. All white forms from alumnae where there is no Rush Board are legal.

If you must solicit a recommendation for a rushee, a request should be directed to the person listed for her town in the Directory or in the mimeographed listing of Authorized Rush Representatives which the chapter has received from Central Office. If there is no one listed, use form provided in chapter supplies to request names of alumnae in the area from the State or Province Chairman. If you receive no reply in a reasonable length of time, contact the Alumnae District President through your rush adviser.

TIMING—Submit all recommendations as soon as possible. College chapters need them by August 1, and if they go to a Rush Rec Board first, time must be allowed for processing.

Complete cooperation among individual alumnae, Rush Recommendation Boards and college chapters is necessary to guarantee the smooth operation of our recommendation procedures. All Thetas share the desire to select the best qualified rushees as members of our fraternity. It is the privilege of alumnae to recommend qualified rushees; it is the privilege of college chapters to select from among those recommended to them.

Theta Lips Are Smiling

◆ Slip-ups, they do happen. Like when the Thetas at Arizona were pinning their hopes for a Greek Week award in the tandem bicycle race. But when the Theta entry and her PiKA team mate (all dressed up in Greek togas) went to mount their trusty tandem the day of the race, they found it had disappeared. A transfer student had quite accidentally ridden away to lunch on it, could not be found. Oh, well, they say disappointment builds character; character was strong among Arizona Thetas that day!

◆ The slip-up at Florida was different. It's hard to build character on an empty stomach, or so we suppose. Hospitably the Thetas had suggested everyone bring guests to dinner after the annual kite fly. Ha! There turned out to be only half enough food. The next kite fly they counted noses—or stomachs, beforehand.

◆ But what do you do when there is plenty of food, but not your kind of food? The house-mother at Alabama asked one southern Theta for some ideas for lunch. This particular Theta's idea of a good meal was turnip greens, salad, black-eyed peas and corn bread. Ergo, such a lunch appeared, but, as she said, "I loved it, but I guess I'm a little more southern than some of the others!"

◆ And what to do when, instead of eating the food, you fall in it? A most wanted rushee at Lawrence fell over the punch table. As the chapter watched, horrified, one Theta felt helpful—she ran over to assist the downed rushee, and fell into the mess herself. The following week the helpful (?) Theta was given the Theta-of-the-week award by the chapter for devotion beyond the regular call of duty!

The title of 1970 Air Force Logistic Command's Wife Of the Year has been bestowed on Hilda McElhenney Griffith, Alpha Theta, Texas. A resident of Kelly AFB in San Antonio, Hilda has been an air force wife for 18 years, has three children, and second to her family finds greatest interest in intensive volunteer work for the Red Cross and its program.

Job Jottings

The manager of the San Francisco pavilion at Japan's Expo '70 is Natalie Naugle, Beta Sigma, Southern Methodist, and Tau, Northwestern. San Francisco is a sister city to Osaka, the site of the fair, and the only city in Expo with a pavilion. Natalie's work with the city of San Francisco and with a public relations firm there led the way to this assignment.

Watch for the summer replacement for Jim Nabor's TV show—a feature called "Happy Days Are Here Again." Singer-comic-mimic Julie McWhirter, Alpha, DePauw, will have her first chance at the big time on this hour.

Filling in on a guest spot on the Carol Burnett TV show recently was singer-comedienne

Jane Connell, Omega, California-Berkeley, who gave a skit on Pollution.

The only one in her state and one of six out of 900 in the U.S. These statistics refer to the practically one-of-its-kind position of Jeanette Poore, Alpha Sigma, Washington State, newly appointed president of Everett Community College (Wash.). Jeanette has been at ECC since 1957, dean of students since 1961.

Wilma Trost Shattuck, Psi, Wisconsin, treasurer of Newton-Wellesley (Mass.) Hospital Aid Association, recently had the pleasure of presenting $20,000 as a final payment on the Aid's pledge of $100,000 to the Building Fund. "Willie" was formerly on Theta's Grand Council.

Virginia Anderson Vieregg, Rho, Nebraska, not only has served two terms as president of the Grand Island (Neb.) board of education, but moved on to the presidency of the Nebraska State School Boards Association. The PTA has awarded her a life membership for service to education.

Honors

Iowa's Outstanding Young Woman Of the Year for 1970 is Diane Staples Roupe, Tau, Northwestern, who lives in Des Moines. She is a busy volunteer worker with a major interest in Goodwill Industries and spends a week a month in Washington, D.C. in her job as chairman of a research program studying the use of volunteers in all rehabilitation facilities.

The 1969 Queen Mother of Washington State University is Joyce Johnson Hansell, Alpha Sigma, Washington State, shown here being congratulated by her sons, currently students at WSU. Their fraternity, Sigma Chi, nominated her for the honor. She is the mother of three other children, also is a civic figure and member of Theta alumnae in Walla Walla.

Straight "A" Thetas

Learning without thought is labor lost; and thought without learning is perilous.—CONFUCIUS

Silver scholarship charms were awarded to the Thetas whose names are starred who made a straight "A" record for the entire 1968-69 school year. Others listed made straight "A's" for a semester or two consecutive terms. Eleven chapters did not report.

Personalities

the same chapter. Eleanor Alford (l.), a senior at North Carolina is "Aunt Eleanor" to junior Ginny Jones (r.) whose mother is Eleanor's sister, Orlean Alford Jones, a Theta from Alpha Eta, Vanderbilt.

Another rarity! Two Theta friends from Denison, both mothers of triplets! Nancy Timms Mitchell '57 claims babies Connie, Mark and Sandra born May 1969. Connie Smith Taylor '58 has five-year-old triplets Greg, Ann and Tony. Nancy was also Connie's Theta Big Sis!

A third rarity! It's not often you can claim a friend who, no matter what the problems, never loses his temper or growls at you over a period of 43 years! Such a friend is Harold J. Bachmann, who, representing Geo. Banta Co., our printers, has guided the Theta Magazine through thick and thin servicing (we figure) some 176 issues since 1926. Bach retired in June 1969. For all his help, for his unfailing good humor and for his friendship, all Thetas say Thanks and extend good wishes.—MMKG.

Burglars Have Funny Tastes

Why would a burglar steal a Theta pin? Pat Wells Lunneborg, Iota, Cornell, now of Seattle, wonders, but the story of her "burgled" pin has a happy ending. It was found in a Goodwill Store. Margaret Roth Martin, Alpha, DePauw, hasn't found her happy ending yet. Their home in St. Louis County, Missouri, was burglarized and her daughter's Alpha chapter officer's pin (1880) was taken. She hopes some Theta will see it somewhere and return it to Alpha chapter or to Theta's Central Office.

I tell you, they have not died, They live and breathe with you. They walk here by your side . . . They live, they know, they see! They shout with every breath: "All is eternal life! There is no death!"—Geoffrey O'Hara

The Centennial Founders' Day in January 1970 brought out greater numbers of Thetas than any time in history. Four hundred, representing seven alumnæ groups and three college chapters, got together in Denver where Mary Forrest Brandriff, national Centennial chairman, was the guest speaker. All those present signed four memory books to be kept as mementoes of the occasion. The oldest Thetas present were two who were initiated in 1904; the collegiates were youngest, four of whom surround birthday cake above.
